#	Passage relied on	Source	Location
1	Zumpano binds Satan "firstly," then the ruler spirit and every principality, in a stated order; later says territorial powers "must be bound, in that hierarchical order"; has believers commission warrior angels.	Bern Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers (Harbor Light, 1999)	p. 5 (daily binding prayer); p. 11 (warrior angels); p. 31 (hierarchical order)
2	Worley binds "the rulers, the strongmen, doorkeepers" of witchcraft, Satan worship, and the occult over "each state, county, city, township, suburb, street, neighborhood, block, home and church."	Win Worley, Warfare Prayers	PDF p. 7 (section "Binding & Loosing"); booklet has no printed page numbers
3	Patterns in a family (multiple divorces, chronic illness, continual financial problems) may indicate a generations curse.	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	p. 18 (list of signs); p. 8
4	"Before a generations curse can be broken, ancestral sin has to be dealt with"; prayer confesses sins of ancestors "on all sides of all of our families, back to our families' origins"; "It is not important to know WHAT the ancestral sin was." Also p. 18: "prayer does not break a curse, only repentance, followed by oral proclamation."	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	p. 8; p. 18
5	Quotation: "I destroy every legal hold, ground and right that demons have to work in our lives."	Worley, Warfare Prayers	PDF p. 3 (in the opening prayer on curses)
6	Step 7, "Curses vs. Blessings": "The iniquities of one generation can adversely affect future generations unless those sins are renounced and their new spiritual heritage in Christ is claimed." "Assure them they are not responsible for the sins of their ancestors—but they most likely have been influenced by them." "They ask God to show them all the sins of their ancestors that have been passed down through family lines. Then they simply renounce those sins…"	Neil T. Anderson, Basic Training for Taking People Through the Steps to Freedom in Christ (compiled by Brian and Jewl Westphalen; modified by Sharon Chapman and Patty Minnihan, 2018 and 2020)	printed p. 86 (PDF p. 12 of 16)
7	The seven areas: Counterfeit vs. Real; Deception vs. Truth; Bitterness vs. Forgiveness; Rebellion vs. Submission; Pride vs. Humility; Bondage vs. Freedom; Curses vs. Blessings.	Anderson, Basic Training for Taking People Through the Steps to Freedom in Christ	PDF pp. 5, 7-9, 12
8	Decrees: Zumpano lists "decreeing (Job 22:28)" among the weapons and prays "I will decree a thing and it will come to pass"; also cites Romans 4:17 ("Faith calls that which is not yet manifested… as if it already has").	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	p. 2; p. 34
9	Acts 16:31: "Jesus promises to save you and your household," listed among principles "to stand upon for	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	p. 34; p. 35; p. 36

	our loved ones' salvations"; prayer repeats "I will be saved and also my household."
10	Prayer before surgery binds spirits "up and off from" the patient's "surgical wounds, IV sites, blood transfusion sites, body openings, and injection sites."	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	p. 9 (prayer 20)
11	"If the financial lifeblood is being squeezed out of the family, and there is increasing financial hardships or stress, suspect the work of the spirit of python."	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	p. 8 (prayer 19)
12	After trauma or demonic oppression, "scripture states the soul has become fragmented"; cites Ps. 7:2 and Ezek. 13:20; has believers commission warrior angels to retrieve soul fragments and "take them by force."	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	p. 11 (prayer 24)
13	Salvetti: "The five steps are not a litany or magic formula you recite by rote."	Neville Salvetti, A Deliverance Training Manual	p. 34 of 51
14	Zumpano preface: the prayers "are not meant to be mechanically or repetitively recited"; readers are to pray "in their own words, from the heart."	Zumpano, Spiritual Warfare Prayers	Preface
